Doukakis's Apprentice - Sarah Morgan

Back to Doukakis' Apprentice, Polly despite being the usual M&B virgin for no particularly good reason (other than she works too hard to have a life and is scarred by father's serial marriages) is otherwise utterly fab, and the hero is justifiably impressed and attracted once he has got over her hot pink tights and his belief that she is a worthless sponger.

Doukakis's Apprentice : NPR

Doukakis's Apprentice is a very different romance. It doesn't follow the typical plots of Harlequin Presents. I really enjoyed it. Polly is an unusual woman who has had a very atypical upbringing and has had to rely on herself all her life even though she had a financially successful father.
