"Just Jane" is a wonderful look into the life and mind of Jane Austin. I love her books, and truly enjoyed learning some of the background of her life and stories. Yes, I know this book wasn't written by Jane herself, but Ms Moser does provide some thought-provoking ideas as to why Jane wrote what she wrote and why she wrote it.

"Just Jane" is a wonderful "bio-novel" -- part novel and part biography. And it is so well-written that I could truly empathize with "Jane," this gifted author who was also a very real human being with very real feelings -- joys, regrets, sorrows, happinesses, fears, love, and contentment. I am looking forward to reading more books by Nancy Moser.
